

Book cover for 'Desamparados - Stalingrado' by Hugo Vercillo. The cover features a soldier in a brown coat and helmet holding a submachine gun in a snowy, war-torn landscape. In the background, a large tank is partially buried in the snow. The title 'DESAMPARADOS' is in large, bold, black letters, with '- STALINGRADO -' below it. The author's name 'Hugo Vercillo' is at the bottom left. A 'WITHIN PLAY' logo is in the bottom right corner.

In Desamparados, each player picks a side—German or Soviet—and one of its two available platoons. Then they take their cards, markers, and components. The game can be played 1vs1, 2vs1, or 2vs2, with platoons split between teammates.
